Conference Premier

Package starts at $3,100

Package includes half or full day of photojournalistic photography as well as a full day of b-roll video production for your conference or event.

All previous options are available, as well as:

- Highlight videos: post on your website and use as part of thank you emails (15, 30 & 60 second social media versions can also be created)
- Next day highlight video: perfect for social media
- Field interviews: short clips with attendees, clients and vendors; ideal to add to the highlight videos

Conference Platinum

Package starts at $6,000

Package includes half or full day of photojournalistic photography as well as a full day of produced, sit-down interviews with executives and/or clients; everyone is in one place so this is a great opportunity.

All previous options are available, as well as:

- Consistent content creation: have a steady stream of content created for the next 3-6 months. 1-2 minute website videos and 15, 30 and 60 second social media versions can be created
- General session recordings: capture the amazing content to build out your YouTube channel. Allow those who could not attend to learn and build engagement for your next conference
